

Eileen Aguba Chen
Superintendent
Robla School District

Eileen Aguba Chen is the Superintendent of the Robla School District in Sacramento County. Eileen is a longtime educator with deep experience as a collaborative leader with a focus on building academic goals, instructional programs, and professional development. Prior to her appointment as Superintendent at Robla School District, Eileen worked in the Pittsburg Unified School District (PUSD) for 22 years. She began her career as a high school math teacher, served as a high school assistant principal, an elementary school principal, then moved to PUSD's central office, where she began to oversee the elementary division as well as the state and federal programs.

Eileen holds a BS in Mathematics from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo and earned her Administrative Credential and Master's in Educational Leadership from California State University, East Bay. She is a member of the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) and California Association of Asian & Pacific Leaders in Education (CAAPLE).