

Eliana Mancilla (ella, she, her) M.A.,
Associate Director of Learning and Development
Woodcraft Rangers

Eliana Mancilla, Director of Learning and Development is a seasoned child development professional with an extensive decade-long tenure specializing in early childhood education, family engagement, and professional development based in experiential learning. With an exceptional track record in mentoring early childhood practitioners to deliver top-tier education for children ages 0 to 5, Eliana continues to mentor and guide young professionals in providing quality programming for early learners.