

Jessica Gunderson (she/her)
Co-CEO
Partnership for Children & Youth

Jessica Gunderson has over fifteen years of experience advancing equity and good governance in state, local, and federal advocacy and policy making. Jessica also worked as a policy director for Californians for Safety and Justice and a senior planner at the Vera Institute of Justice. She began her career as a legislative staffer for former Assembly Member Karen Bass and the Select Committee on Foster Youth. She has led numerous statewide campaigns and published over twenty public reports. Jessica received her MPA in Public Policy from New York University's Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service and her BA from the University of San Francisco.