

PARTNERSHIP FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Connecting Communities and Schools to Resources
So Every Child Can Thrive.

You're Invited

Join Us on May 12 for a Hearing at the Capitol About the Community Schools Approach

Select Committee on Workforce Development, School Environment and Student Wellness
Senator Loni Hancock, Chair

Speakers Include

Tony Smith, Superintendent

Oakland Unified School District

James Hammond, Superintendent

Ontario-Montclair School District

Jan Christensen, Superintendent

Redwood City School District

Thursday, May 12, 2011

Room 112, The Capitol, Sacramento

9:30am (or upon adjournment of session)

Partnership for Children and Youth along with Senator Loni Hancock, chairwoman of the Select Committee on Workforce Development, School Environment and Student Wellness invite you to hear about the community schools approach as an important strategy for school improvement in California.

Hear from schools and districts themselves about why supporting children and families in a more comprehensive way is critical to school success and also makes good governance sense. ● The University of California, Davis and the Partnership for Children and Youth are unveiling the latest research on California's long-time investment in community schools, the Healthy Start Program. ● Attendees will also hear about bills in this year's legislative session that can help to support community school partnerships.